The elevator at the eastbound stop on SR-520 at the Clyde Hill/Yarrow Point Freeway Station is out of service until further notice.

Eastbound transit riders who require the use of an elevator can plan ahead to board or exit SR-520 transit service at the Evergreen Point Road Freeway Station instead. The elevators are located at the west end of the platform near the stairway to the transit plaza.

Additionally, the elevator at the westbound Yarrow Point stop is not affected. Eastbound transit passengers who need to get to Yarrow Point can ride to their route’s next stop east of Yarrow Point, then transfer to westbound service to return to Yarrow Point and use the elevator at the westbound stop.

Every effort is being made to restore the elevator as soon as possible. We apologize for any inconvenience. Your patience is appreciated.
